Fine Wines

Château Petrus 1983

Herbaceous, vegetal notes intermixed with notes of tea, earthy cherries, and a hint of liquorice are all present in the aromas and the attack. Drink now. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate.

£3500.00

Château Lafite Rothschild 1er Cru Classé Pauillac 1996

Cabernet Sauvignon (83% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Cabernet Franc, 7% Merlot, and 3% Petit Verdot). It is the first Lafite-Rothschild to be put into a new engraved bottle (designed to prevent fraudulent imitations). The wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple colour, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and blackcurrant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2050. The wine of the vintage?

£3000.00

Château Lafite Rothschild 1er Cru Classé Pauillac 1995

A moderate ruby hue. Very fresh, floral nose. Quite minerally, becoming dominated by cassis with aeration with a touch of mocha. The palate is feminine, elegant with a citrus freshness and good acidity. The nose is still very masculine: pencil lead, blackberry, black cherry and a touch of smoke. The palate has good structure, excellent acidity. Very minerally, liquorice and burnt toast. Very fine definition and good weight. Superb balance and poise. This is an archetypal Lafite this is just getting into its stride. Fresh, crisp finish with a touch of green pepper from the Cabernet Franc.

Fine Wines

Château Lafite Rothschild 1er Cru Classé Pauillac 2002

A brilliant offering and a candidate for wine of the vintage, this is classic Lafite that reminded me somewhat of the 1976, although the vintage conditions were completely different. This is a medium-weight, quintessentially elegant style of Lafite with notes of lead pencil shavings/graphite along with blackcurrants, plums and crushed rocks/mineral. Wonderfully pure, dense, with a deep ruby/purple colour and loads of fruit, definition, and a long finish, this is a brilliant, elegant Lafite Rothschild that builds incrementally in the mouth and has more power and density than it initially seems. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2025

£2000.00

Château Lafite Rothschild 1er Cru Classé Pauillac 2007

A candidate for the wine of the vintage, the 2007 Lafite Rothschild (84% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot, and 1% Petit Verdot) reveals classic Lafite aromas of graphite, unsmoked cigar tobacco, blackcurrants, cherries and a hint of truffles. The complex aromatics are followed by a round, medium to full-bodied wine with silky tannins, an overall subtle smoky component, and a rich, round, generous, plump finish. Already evolved and delicious, it should continue to drink well for two decades. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate Drink 2010-2030

£1800.00

Château Latour 1996

This 100 (Parker) point wine is classic Latour at its utmost. According to Parker, the nose offers a tantalizing array of complex notes including dried Chinese plums, toasted nuts, Indian spices and black olive tapenade over a core of dried cherries and aged meat. The palate is pure power that is stunningly balanced giving a generous level of fruit concentration perfectly offset by a high level of very finely grained tannins and seamless freshness. Possessing a finish that just goes on and on, this is as good as it gets.

£1800.00

Château Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé Margaux 1996

1996 Château Margaux is undoubtedly one of the great classics. In many respects, it is the quintessential Château Margaux, combining measured power, extraordinary elegance, and admirable complexity. In short, it's a beauty! The wine offers extraordinarily pure notes of blackberries, cassis, toast and flowers, gorgeous sweetness, a seamless personality, and full body, with nothing out of place. The final blend (85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Merlot, and the rest Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc) contains the highest percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon since 1986. It is one of the strongest candidates for the wine of the vintage.

Fine Wines

Château Haut Brion 1er Cru Classé Graves 1995.

A great vintage for Haut Brion. The result is a deep ruby/purple-colored wine with a tight but promising nose of burning wood embers intermixed with vanilla, spice box, earth, mineral, sweet cherry, blackcurrant, plum-like fruit, medium to full body, a high level of ripe but sweet tannin, and a finish that goes on for a good 40-45 seconds.

£1080.00

Château Margaux 1er Grand Cru Classé Margaux 1988.

The 1988 offers a classic bouquet of violets and blackcurrants intertwined with lavish quantities of toasty new oak. Medium-bodied, concentrated, but extremely hard and tannic, this elegantly wrought, slightly herbaceous wine possesses a tougher texture and more astringent tannins than usual. It has begun to reveal more sweetness of fruit.

£888.00

Château Cos d'Estournel 2eme Cru Classé St. Estephe 1986.

The 1986 is a highly extracted wine, with a black/ruby color and plenty of toasty, smoky notes in its bouquet that suggest ripe plums and licorice. Evolving at a glacial pace, it exhibits massive, huge, ripe, extremely concentrated flavors with impressive depth and richness. It possesses more power, weight, and tannin than the more opulent and currently more charming 1985.

£400.00

Pavillon Rouge du Château Margaux 1998.

Stylish and pure, the 2005 Pavillon Rouge du Chateau Margaux is soft and round, with a deep ruby color, silky tannins, medium body and a lush, seductive mouthfeel. It is drinking well already and should continue to do so for another 8-10 years.

£380.00

Fine Wines

Château Ducru-Beaucaillou 2eme Cru Classé St-Julien 2003

The wines of Ducru are the essence of elegance, symmetry, balance and distinction, with a stunning harmony of fruit and power. 1997 has a classy complex bouquet of lead pencil, mineral, earth, cassis and flowers.

It is evolved and elegant with good tannin, moderate weight, excellent depth and purity.

£280.00

Château Pavie Decesse Grand Cru Classé Saint Emilion 2005

Pavie Decesse, a much smaller vineyard (9 acres) than Pavie, produces just over 400 cases of wine. This exhibits more espresso, chocolate and caramelized Merlot-like flavours, and reveals a certain freshness and precision because of its exquisite limestone-based terroir. A blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, the blockbuster 2005 Pavie Decesse boasts an inky, purple colour as well as a gorgeous nose of crushed rocks, acacia flowers, blackberries, blueberries and a super-concentrated cranberry-like note. Its well-integrated toasty oak component is more noticeable than in the Pavie.

Exceptionally concentrated, powerful and long.

£300.00

Château Leoville Las Cases Saint Julien 2eme Cru Classé 2008

This wine posses an opaque colour, and an attention-getting, staggering, sweet nose that offers the essence of blackcurrant fruit, kirsch and minerals as well as the essence of Leoville-Las-Cases's personality. It is fabulously concentrated, with the sur-maturite (over-ripeness) of Cabernet Sauvignon, one of the wine's most undeniable hallmarks. When measured, the tannic level is extremely high, but you would never know that when tasting this wine because of the massive amount of unbridles power and complexity, this wine has beaucoup de finesse, as well as a finish that lasts close to 45 seconds.

£320.00

Château Rauzan-Segla 2eme Cru Classé Margaux 1989

Rauzan-Segla can trace it's history to 1661. The 1989 is an outstanding effort—the nose of black fruits intermixed with Provencal herbs, liquorice, with hints of blueberry is followed by a wine with roasted ripeness, silky tannin and a long finish, drinking superbly now.
